

NEWS from

Macon Economic Development Commission

Release Date: January 28, 2008

CONTACT: Patrick Topping, CEcD
Senior Vice President
(478) 621-2030
ptopping@maconworks.com
www.maconworks.com

Greater Macon Chamber of Commerce Announces 147th Annual Meeting Award Winners

Macon, GA - On Friday, January 25th, representatives from the Macon business community gathered at the Macon City Auditorium for the 147th Annual Meeting of the Greater Macon Chamber of Commerce. Both individuals and businesses were recognized for their dedication and hard work to the Chamber and the Macon Economic Development Commission (MEDC) over the past year.

The following awards were presented

Ambassador of the Year: Sharon Jones, Alphagraphics

Large Existing Industry of the Year: MaconPower

Partners for Progress: The Partner for Progress Award is presented to the following companies as recognition of the role they play in the growth and development of the Macon economy. Each organization is a vital partner in the economic development process and their support of MEDC's economic development efforts has resulted in the growth of jobs and investment in the City of Macon and Bibb County. Success in economic development is achieved when the community works together to make things happen, and each of the below listed companies is a key partner in the progress that our community makes to enhance the economic opportunities for all our citizens.

- * Bibb County
- * Bibb County Board of Education
- * City of Macon
- * Macon-Bibb County Industrial Authority
- * Macon Water Authority

Small Business of the Year: Lowe Aviation

Citizen of the Year: Charles H. Jones

